

MATT VARNISHED LIGHT BRONZE

Varnished Bronze, typical of Roccoco or Empire-period tap fittings, is evocative of a previous era, creating an authentic and refined atmosphere in the bathroom or kitchen. This finish is a popular choice for transitional styles, or encouraging imaginative designs which transcend lines for modern or industrial-style tap fittings.

Référence : D05

CHARACTERISTICS

The varnished bronze look is achieved by applying a brushed patina to the brass. The finish is covered with a matt polyester lacquer. This delicate coating requires careful maintenance to preserve its original appearance.
